

Women's Engineering Society 'EngTech Ready' Apprentice Conference 2019
Supported by the Arconic Foundation

Saturday 15 June 2019
Engineers House, The Promenade, Clifton Down,
Bristol, BS8 3NB

Open to female apprentice engineers aged 18 and above

Agenda

9.00	Registration: refreshments available
9.30	Welcome and introduction Elizabeth Donnelly, Chief Executive, Women's Engineering Society Dawn Fitt, Women's Engineering Society (Conference Chair)
9.45	'My career: more pedigree than degree' Dr. Katherine Critchley, who began her career as an apprentice engineer, tells her story and describes her path to a senior executive position.
10.30	Networking break
11.00	Creating an individual brand and profile Helen Brindley, Siemens, shares how she has built her own profile within the industry since 2016 and how she intends to develop it as she enters the world of work
11.30	Teamwork session: inspired by the nearby Clifton Suspension Bridge
1.00	Networking Lunch
2.00	'From EngTech Ready to EngTech' Kate Webster, MarComms Manager, Engineering Council, leads an interactive session exploring the benefits of professional registration, pathways to achieving it, how to demonstrate competence and where a career in engineering can lead
3.00	Networking break
3.30	Manufacturing your future Charlotte Horobin, Membership Director – Midlands and East of England, Make UK
4.15	Closing remarks Elizabeth Donnelly and Dawn Fitt
4.30	Conference ends

wes.org.uk @WES1919 #engtechready #INWED19