

27 & 28

April

2023

---

ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

---

wes

Women's Engineering Society

Thursday 27 April 2023

10.00 - 10.30	Registration and Welcome
10.30 - 11.15	Alison Baptiste CBE Director of Public and Security Services, Infrastructure and Projects Authority
11.15 - 12.00	Primary voices accelerating planet security Paula McMahon Co-Chair SRM Gender Equality Network, Sir Robert McAlpine Ltd
12.00 - 12.15	Defining The Line for personal safety Paula McMahon
12.15 - 13.15	Lunch
13.15 - 14.15	Building a career Elizabeth Donnelly CEO, WES	Developing an effective returners programme Natalie Desty, STEM Returners &amp; National Grid
14.15 - 14.30	Break
14.30 - 15.15	Cyber Security Dr. Manisha Morais , Kuzuko Group	TBC
15.15 - 16.00	The struggle of ethical engineering in the competitive Aerospace Industry Tosha Nembhard , University of Leicester	TBC
16.00 - 17.00	Key Note - Sponsored Talk TBC

Friday 28 April 2023

10.00 - 10.45	A safety and security toolbox for today's future Dr Emma Taylor, Visiting Professor in Digital Safety and Security, Cranfield University
10.45 - 11.15	Overcoming Barriers Speak Out Revolution	Panel Session. WES Climate Emergency Group
11.15 - 11.45	Break
11.45 - 12.30	The Genderfication of industry, is it a safety thing and what does it mean for Climate Change? Kerry Evans, EcoScope
12.30 - 13.30	Lunch
13.30 - 14.30	How digital technology and innovation can improve safety and security for women Anni Feng, Arup	TBC
14.30 - 15.00	Break
15.00 - 15.45	Getting under the skin of recent legal cases and what we can learn from them about organisational and personal responsibility for safety Amy Sadro, Principal Associate, Eversheds Sutherland
15.45 - 16.30	TBC

Please note this is a provisional programme and timings and speakers may change. In the event that there is any change to the above refunds will not be permitted.